Grace Institute Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Grace Institute?

It is a series of classes held Sunday mornings at Grace Community Fellowship which provide an in-depth look at the Bible, theology, and ministry.

What is expected of a student?

The class is designed to be "college-level," and has homework including readings, oral reports, and study. Students are highly encouraged to participate in the homework. The focus of the class is to help people discover the Bible for themselves, not for them to be told what to believe.

Who can enroll?

Anyone with a desire to learn more about Christianity and the Bible.

What does it cost?

A $10 donation is requested to help cover the cost of books and materials. Scholarships are available to those needing them.

Do I have to start with any particular class? What if I only want to take one of the classes?

The Institute follows the school calendar, with three terms per year. Students can begin at the start of any term.

Why does Grace offer the Institute?

We believe a good understanding of the Bible is crucial to Christian maturity. However, maturity is more than just knowledge. It is allowing the Holy Spirit to change your life based on this knowledge. The Institute provides a starting point for this maturity to happen.

Who Teaches the Institute?

The primary teacher is Ken Carson. However, guest speakers and student presentations are used to provide expert teaching, and/or alternative perspectives.
